Stunning Panoramic Views - Picture Postcard Perfect in Rosemount Farm Estate

Positioned on a no through road high amongst the tree tops in the exclusive Rosemount Farm Estate, this stunning timber home sits perfectly on 1.3 acres in its amazing bushland setting and offers a unique combination of luxury, style and space, boasting incredible views from wrap around decks with the warmth and character of timber construction in Cyprus & Western Red Cedar.

Sweeping panoramic views, high cathedral ceilings, polished wooden flooring and large windows and skylight give the home a bright and airy feeling with breezes in a setting that will simply take your breath away.

This spacious and clever two-story design takes full advantage of the hillside location and generous 5399 m low maintenance block. The multiple sweeping decks and large windows fuse flawlessly with the stylish interior to bring the spectacular views inside the home giving you a real sense of living in the trees and mountain tops.

Upstairs features a large open plan living design with combined lounge and spacious kitchen with dishwasher, under bench oven and cook top with a breakfast bar leading out to the timber deck. The private king size main bedroom has a huge walk in robe and private en-suite and provides private access to the elevated wrap around deck. An additional three bedrooms, large family bathroom, separate laundry and toilet complete the upstairs accommodation.
